

A high-angle, wide shot of a rugged mountain valley. In the foreground, a winding asphalt road follows the left bank of a wide, shallow river with milky, brownish water. The river flows from the background towards the bottom right. The surrounding mountains are steep and rocky, with visible erosion patterns and some snow patches on the higher peaks. The sky is filled with heavy, grey clouds, creating a moody atmosphere. The overall color palette is dominated by earthy browns, greys, and the white of the snow and clouds.

Studded by grains of yellow sandstone, the Jaisalmer fort, popularly known as the Golden Fort, is one of the largest and most mesmerising forts in the world. The outskirts of the fort area are filled with shops, restaurants, and museums offering visitors a range of souvenirs, handicrafts, and Rajasthani delicacies. You can spend the evening leisurely exploring the local markets, and enjoying the contemporary culture of Rajasthan before we retire to the hotel for the day.

Start your day by indulging yourself in a savoury breakfast! Honour the contributions and sacrifices of the heroes of the Indian army at the Jaisalmer War Memorial. After a morning of living history, admire the magnificent art of filigree work and the intricate carvings on the exquisite Jaisalmeri stone at the famous Havelis - Nathmal ki Haveli, Salim Singh ki Haveli, and Patwon ki Haveli. Dating back from the 12th century to the 19th century, the carved balconies and latticed screens of these Havelis can take your breath away with their beauty.

The afternoon unfolds on an elated note as you head to the Sam Sand Dunes, for an overnight stay in the desert. A traditional welcome of aarti and tika awaits you upon arrival at the campsite.
