ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival Day - Dehradun to Sankri Base Camp

Leave from Dehradun to base camp Sankri. Cross the Yamuna bridge and experience the attractive view of dense pine forests on this scenic drive to Sankri. You will pass through popular places like Mussoorie, Nainbagh, Damta and Purola towns of Uttarakhand.

Sankri lies in the Govind Wildlife Sanctuary of the Uttarkashi district. A charming and beautiful village, Sankri is home to apple orchards and around 250 houses. When you reach the base, take in the spectacular views of the snow-covered mountains and the splendid view of the four peaks in the Swargarohini range. Watch the sun setting behind the Greater Himalayas as you enjoy tea at the camp.

Savor a delicious dinner. Enjoy a relaxed night at Sankri under the star-studded sky.

Day 2: Sankri - Taluka - Seema

After a delicious breakfast, drive to Taluka early in the morning. Pass through dense forests and beautiful water streams. Enjoy the view as you hear birds chirping. If lucky, you will also witness a rare species of birds including the state bird of Uttarakhand 'Himalayan Monal'. You may also come in a close encounter with the wilderness - Leopards, Barking Deer and Bores. Upon reaching Taluka, rest for some time and start your 14 km trek to Seema. You will pass through rocky surfaces, traditional wooden bridges as well as lush green trails with the Supin river flowing on your left.

By evening, reach Seema via Gangar village and spend a relaxed night.

Day 3: Seema - Kalkati Dhar (8 km trek)

Get ready for a day of thrill, adventure, and hard work. The trek to Kalkati Dhar is 8 km and the ascent is steep. On the way, you will witness snow-capped mountains, cascading waterfalls, gorgeous pastures, and a variety of flora & fauna. You will cross the Tamosa river and climb up to reach the trail that goes along the river upstream. You will reach the Kalkati Dhar by evening.

Upon reaching, you might be able to see birds like mountain fitches, flycatchers and buntings as the valley is rich with bird life. You may also see a Blue Sheep and Himalayan Langur.

Enjoy a delicious dinner and spend a rejuvenating night in the camp.

Day 4: Kalkatidhar to Har Ki Dun to Maninda Lake and back to Kalkatidhar (12 kms)

Wake up to a beautiful sunrise in Kalkati Dhar and soak in the charm of nature. Witness the enchanting sight of Swargarohini range, Jaundhar Glacier, Hata peak and other Himalayan peaks as you also see River Supin and Ruinsara Rivers flowing.

trek a little further towards the stunning Maninda Lake. capture the sights of mountains, meadows, glaciers, and rivers in this beautiful valley that is simply surreal.

Once we have explored the valley, and creating memories that will last a lifetime, we return to our final campsite at Kalkati Dhar.

Day 5: Kalkati Dhar - Seema

While it may get difficult for you to bid farewell to this gorgeous place, it's time to head back to Seema. After a warm breakfast amidst nature, start trekking to Seema.

Upon reaching Seema, enjoy dinner and overnight stay in a camp.

Day 6: Seema - Taluka - Sankri Base Camp

After breakfast, get ready to trek for the last time from Seema to Taluka via dense forests. Reach Taluka and drive back to Sankri base camp.

Overnight stay at Sankri base camp.

Day 7: Departure from Sankri to Dehradun

Leave Sankri to reach Dehradun by morning. Transport by car will be provided.
