

A high-angle, wide shot of a rugged mountain valley. In the foreground, a dark, winding road follows the edge of a river. The river is a milky, light brown color, flowing through the center of the valley. The surrounding mountains are steep and rocky, with patches of reddish-brown soil and sparse vegetation. In the distance, a range of jagged, snow-capped mountains rises against a sky filled with heavy, grey clouds. The overall scene is one of a wild, untamed natural environment.

Once you reach Delhi, you will have to proceed towards your boarding point for the overnight bus from Delhi to Shimla.

Day 2: Shimla to Sangla/ Chitkul

After reaching Shimla, depart for one of the most beautiful views of Kinnaur Valley. The village is the last inhabited one, before the border between India and China. Stay and Dinner at Hotel/Homestay/Camps.

Day 3: Chitkul to Kalpa

After breakfast head to Kalpa, which is just 60 Kms away, and reach Kalpa by afternoon. Overnight stay at Camp/Homestay.

Day 4: Kalpa to Kaza

Depart for Kaza after breakfast. Enroute Indo-Tibet highway. Also, on the itinerary is the Khab Confluence of the Satluj River and Spiti River. Afterwards, cross Nako and enter Spiti valley right after crossing Sumdo. Stop at Nako Lake for lunch. Head to Kaza for dinner and overnight stay.

Day 5: Kaza Local Sightseeing

After breakfast, continue your journey to see the breath-taking beauty of Kaza.

The small village Langza of Spiti Valley contains some of the most attractive tourist attractions such as Key Gompa Monastery which is nestled between mountains in a bowl-shaped formation. The village is located at an astounding 14,500 ft above sea level. Moreover, it is the highest village in the world with a motorable road; Komic is the highest village with a motorable road.

The village of Hikim in Spiti District, near Kaza, is another beautiful location. Stay overnight at a hotel.

Day 6: Kaza to Chandratat to Sissu

Our backpacking trip, then moves to the beautiful crescent shaped Chandratat Lake, the next location on the map. This place will take your breath away. This is a lake in the Spiti region of Lahaul and Spiti district that is also known as “Moon Lake”. On one side, it is surrounded by mountains and on the other by a cirque. After spending a good quality time on the lake, we will be starting our journey again towards Sissu which is at 40kms.

Day 7: Sissu to Manali Bus Stand

Get ready for the last day of the Spiti Valley backpacking Trip as soon as the dawn breaks. Following a hearty breakfast, drive along the iconic route of the Atal Tunnel and some of the most scenic villages in the Lahaul Valley.

This day marks the end of this adventure. While you may be leaving for home today, you won't be going alone.

This trip will provide you with lots of fun memories which you will treasure for a long time.

Day 8: Arrival in Delhi

As we are already delving deep into nostalgia, let's remember the days we stitched together to make memories. These memories are a promise to travel back to the marvellous Spiti again.
