THINGS TO CARRY

- ID Proof: Please carry a valid ID proof for identification purposes.
- Backpack: Ensure you have a sturdy backpack, preferably waterproof or covered with a waterproof cover, to keep your belongings safe and dry during the trek.
- Trekking Shoes or Sports Shoes: Wear comfortable shoes with a good grip to navigate challenging terrains. Trekking shoes are highly recommended, but any sports shoes with a reliable grip will suffice.
- Trekking Pants: It is compulsory to wear trekking pants that provide flexibility and protection. They will shield your legs from thorns, insects, prickles, and the sun's rays.
- T-Shirts: Pack two T-shirts, preferably full sleeves or half T-shirts with sleeves, to protect your arms from the elements.
- Raincoat/Waterproof Jacket/Windcheater: Be prepared for unexpected rain showers by bringing a raincoat or waterproof jacket. This will keep you dry and comfortable during wet weather.
- Hand napkin/Towel: Carry a small hand napkin or towel for personal hygiene and to wipe away sweat.
- Water: Stay hydrated throughout the trek by carrying 2-3 liters of water. It is essential to keep your body replenished during physical activities.
- Ready-to-Eat Food: Pack lightweight and non-perishable food items such as plum cakes, dry fruits, dry snacks, biscuits, chikki, chocolate bars, etc. These snacks will provide instant energy during the trek.
- Torch: A small portable torch will come in handy, especially during low-light conditions or in case of emergencies.
- Personal Medicines and First Aid: Carry any necessary personal medications and a basic first aid kit to address minor injuries or health concerns.
- Change of Clothes: Bring extra pants/shorts, an extra T-shirt, and innerwear to change into after the trek.
- Slippers/Floaters: Comfortable footwear to wear after the trek when you want to give your feet a break from trekking shoes.
- Sweater: Keep yourself warm during the bus journey by carrying a sweater or light
