

A high-angle, wide shot of a rugged mountain valley. In the foreground, a winding asphalt road follows the curve of a river. The river is a milky, light brown color, typical of glacial meltwater. The surrounding mountains are steep and rocky, with various shades of brown, tan, and grey. In the distance, a range of jagged, snow-capped peaks rises against a sky filled with heavy, grey clouds. The overall atmosphere is one of wild, untamed nature.

We start our exhilarating Vikatgad Fort trek adventure by gathering at pickup locations (Mumbai / Pune). Fuel up for the day with a scrumptious breakfast. With our taste buds delighted, we'll hop into cabs bound for Matheran - our gateway to Peb Fort.

Situated amidst the lush greenery of the Western Ghats, Matheran is a quaint hill station known for its natural beauty and pleasant climate. As we arrive in Matheran, we'll set off on an invigorating trek through the scenic toy train route leading up to the breath taking Peb Fort. The ancient fort holds great historical significance in the region. It served as a strategic watchtower and was used as a crucial lookout point by the Marathas during the reign of Shivaji Maharaj.

Upon reaching the summit, it's time to feast on mouth-watering Theplas while soaking in panoramic views and making unforgettable memories. As we descend via the same picturesque route, our spirits will be refreshed and recharged.
